Terminology

Appointments Advisory Committee	The committee appointed by the relevant Executive Committee to assist with the process of appointing adults in Scouting.
Appointment Panel	A panel of three persons drawn from the Appointments Advisory Committee which undertakes a meeting with an applicant for a role in Scouting. The panel's purpose is to ensure the applicant is aware of and accepts the values and policies of The Scouts and they understand the requirements of their role and is able and willing to carry it out.

The Appointments Process

The Appointments Process - Purpose

The purpose of the appointment process is to ensure that all those adults that the Movement accepts as volunteers:

Are appropriate persons to volunteer with The Scouts

Are appropriate for the roles they are undertaking

Fully accept the responsibilities of the roles and, where appropriate, the responsibilities of membership of The Scouts

The Appointments Process - Principals

The appointment process must be run so that:

the applicant feels welcomed, valued and not threatened by the appointment

the applicant is kept informed of progress through the appointment process

the Association has robust assurance of appointing only appropriate people

i.the applicant takes a role that is appropriate to their skills, knowledge and attitude

The Appointments Process - Stages

Application: a line manager agrees to support an adult applying for an appointment and agrees a role description for that appointment

The Appointments Process - Stages

Approval: independent checking concludes that the applicant is suitable for an appointment and includes agreement from the relevant Commissioner or body, successful outcome of the Personal Enquiry and, where appropriate, taking up two references.

The Appointments Process - Stages

Appointment: the relevant Commissioner or body makes the appointment.

The Appointments Process - Stages

Induction: the line manager ensures that the adult receives a high quality induction (this stage starts from the application process and runs for some time after the appointment is made).

The Appointment Process - Roles

Line manager

The line manager recommends the applicant for the appointment.

Approver

The appointment is approved by the Appointments Advisory Committee, the relevant Executive Committee or the relevant Scout Council according to the appointment being made.

Relevant Commissioner/Body

The relevant Commissioner, the relevant Executive Committee or the relevant electoral body with the responsibility for making the appointment.

The Appointments Advisory Committee

Appointments Advisory Committee - Roles

The Appointments Advisory Committee (AAC) is a mandatory sub-committee of the relevant Executive Committee

- The AAC is appointed by the relevant Executive Committee
- The AAC is responsible to the relevant Executive Committee
- The AAC members are: Appointments Chair, Appointments Secretary and a pool of committee members

Appointments Chair

On behalf of the District Executive Committee ensure that the appointment process within the District follows the rules, procedures and policies of The Scout Association

The Appointments Chair is therefore the person who is ultimately responsible for the activities of the Appointments Advisory Committee

Manage meetings of the whole Appointments Advisory Committee as necessary to ensure that the committee fulfils its responsibilities

Use the meetings of the whole AAC to ensure that its responsibilities are fulfilled. Including appropriate discussions around the responsibilities of the AAC (i.e. appointments, review, suspensions, disagreements).

Ensure that new members of the committee are inducted, trained and supported

The Appointments Chair is responsible for the volunteers on the AAC and is therefore the person accountable for the induction, training and ongoing support of all AAC members.

Appointments Secretary

Administers in a timely manner the appointment process within the District

Ensuring that the relevant stages of appointment happen in a timely manner (Criminal Record Check, References, Appointment Panel, Commissioner Approval).

Including making arrangements for Appointments Panel meetings, and obtaining references.

Ensures maintenance of records of all appointments within the District, on Compass

Appointments Secretaries are responsible for making sure that the online Membership System ('Compass') is kept up to date and consistent.

Administers the appointment review process in the County/District

Including tracking that Appointment Reviews are being undertaken, ensuring that AAC reviews are appropriately undertaken, and ensuring safe storage of Appointment Review records.

AAC Members

Participate in Appointment Panel meetings required to determine if an adult is suitable for a particular appointment in Scouting

The AAC is used as a resource pool. Three different members from this pool will attend each Appointment Panel meeting, which is an informal meeting with an applicant to determine their suitability for an appointment in Scouting.

It is important that applicants can be met without unreasonable delay.

The Appointments Chair and Appointments Secretary are not required to be at the Panel meeting with the adult, but they are part of the pool.

Contribute to full committee meetings as part of the committee's responsibilities

As well as Appointment Panel meetings, AAC members will also attend the meetings of the whole Appointments Advisory Committee, which are managed by the Appointments Chair, and should use their skills and experience to contribute fully to these meetings..

Responsibilities of the Appointments Advisory Committee

Role of the AAC

The AAC is responsible for:

- Appointment Panels
- Appointment Reviews
- Suspensions
- Complaints
- Cancellations

Appointments Panel – Conversation Framework

- Welcome the new volunteer to Scouting
- Introduce the new volunteer to their role
- Understand what the new volunteer would like to get from Scouting
- Introduce the Values, Promise and Policies of Scouting
- Discuss the next steps in the appointments process for the new volunteer

To support with the delivery of the Appointment Panel conversations you can use the Appointment Meeting Conversation Guide.

Try to ensure that your AAC has a diverse range of members so that you can best meet the needs of any volunteer at an Appointment Panel.

Appointment Reviews

What is the Appointments Advisory Committee's role?

Ensuring that the Appointment Review process is working well across the District or County.

The AAC is only responsible for ensuring that appointment review reminders are sent to line managers and reviewing the appointment review forms once they have been completed.

Complaints

What is the role of the Appointments Advisory Committee in resolving disagreements between adults?

Support the manager if necessary by considering the findings of an investigation.

The Appointments Advisory Committee does not investigate the dispute.

Suspensions

Who has the right to suspend an appointment?

Only the relevant Commissioner has the authority to suspend someone, with the approval of their line manager.

What is the role of the Appointments Advisory Committee in dealing with suspensions?

The committee supports the Commissioner in dealing with the consequences of this process, specifically supporting and advising on whether to lift the suspension and reinstate the person.

What is the Appointments Advisory Committee's role?

To help ease the decision-making load on the Commissioner, and therefore reduce the likelihood of them being accused of personal prejudice against the adult.

Cancellation

What is the Appointments Advisory Committee's role in cancelling appointments?

To support and advise the relevant Commissioner if required;

To ensure a Cancellation/Suspension is recorded on Compass, with the appropriate reason for cancellation recorded.

In summary...

In Summary...

The Appointments Advisory Committee members must act sensitively and in confidence.

The Appointments Advisory Committee members will be involved in dealing with and advising on sensitive issues.

It is an essential part of the role that the Appointments Advisory Committee must remain focused on facts and not be influenced by personal bias.
