Please note

County: Although in some parts of the British Isles Scout Counties are known as Areas or Islands – and in one case Bailiwick – for ease of reading this publication simply refers to County/Counties. In Scotland there is no direct equivalent to County or Area. In Scotland, Scouting is organised into Districts and Regions, each with distinct responsibilities. Some 'Country' functions are the responsibility of Scottish Regions, while others lie with Scottish Districts. The focus of responsibility is outlined in Scottish variations from POR.

With grateful thanks

In my role I am privileged to witness many examples across the UK of just how wonderful Scouting is. The awards in this document are a chance to recognise the amazing achievements, commitment and dedication of our volunteers. It is humbling to read the citations - and in particular those of the truly inspiring recipients of Gallantry and Meritorious Awards who have shown such courage and determination in the most challenging of circumstances.

Whatever you do in Scouting, please accept my heartfelt thanks for your hard work that makes our Movement such an astonishing force for good.

Tim.
UK Chief Commissioner

Good Service Awards

(St George's Day Awards issued between January and December 2018)

Baden-Powell chose St George to be the Patron Saint of Scouting. St George embodied the qualities to which he wanted Scouts to aspire: faith, bravery and determination. St George's Day is celebrated on 23 April each year and is an important day in the Scouting calendar where adults can be recognised with good service awards.

The Silver Wolf

In recognition of services to Scouting of the most exceptional nature. The Silver Wolf Award was introduced by Lord Baden-Powell and remains the Scout Association's highest award for service to Scouting. The Silver Wolf is the unrestricted gift of the Chief Scout and is only awarded 'for service of an exceptional nature'. It is not normally awarded until at least a Silver Acorn has been gained. In practice, this means that it is seldom awarded for less than 30 years' service, although this is not always the case.

The Bar to the Silver Acorn

In recognition of further specially distinguished service The Bar to the Silver Acorn can only be awarded after a Silver Acorn has been gained.

The Silver Acorn

In recognition of specially distinguished service. The Silver Acorn was first introduced as a St George's Day Award in 1933. It is not normally awarded until after at least the Award for Merit has been gained and is seldom awarded for less than 20 years' service.

Bar to the Award for Merit

In recognition of further outstanding service to Scouting. The Bar to the Award for Merit can only be awarded after The Award for Merit has been gained as well as a five further years of outstanding service. (Only The Scout Association Headquarters Staff and Volunteers who received this award are listed below).

Award for Merit

In recognition of outstanding service to Scouting. The Award for Merit can only be awarded after a minimum of 12 years (exceptionally 10 years) outstanding service. (Only The Scout Association Headquarters Staff and Volunteers who received this award are listed below).

Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service

In recognition of good service to Scouting. The Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service can only be awarded after a minimum of five years good service. (Only The Scout Association Headquarters Staff and Volunteers who received this award are listed below).
