Saying thank you

We'd just like to say thank you.

You, our brilliant volunteers and staff, make Scouts happen. It's as simple as that. Without your kindness and commitment we wouldn't be able to offer the incredible opportunities we give to our young people, helping them gain skills for life.

Saying thank you is more important now than ever. It's been an incredible tough 12 months, and the way you've responded to the challenges presented by the pandemic's been truly inspiring. You've adapted to the challenges of online and socially distanced activities so well, and supported young people (and each other) every step of the way.

If you're one of our Good Service Award recipients, then thank you: your contribution really has made all the difference. If you're one of our members being recognised for their courage, bravery and service, then we're truly humbled by the example you've set. You should all be so proud of yourselves.

What you do is so important. You give families and communities a sense of hope and belonging, as well as skills for the future, at time when they're needed more than ever.

Thanks for everything you do.

Bear Grylls OBE
Chief Scout

Over the past year in my role I have been privileged to witness many examples across the UK of the astounding hard work of so many adult volunteers and staff who make Scouts a real adventure for young people. In the unusual year that it has been, I have met more people than ever due to the power of technology and video conferencing. I have witnessed first-hand, huge numbers of our volunteers doing extraordinary things, going more than the extra mile, to help young people make sense of the world, maintain their spirits and find fun and adventure in new ways. The awards detailed in this document are a chance to recognise the amazing achievements, commitment and dedication of our volunteers and staff. It is humbling to read the citations - and in particular those of the truly inspiring recipients of Meritorious Conduct and Gallantry Awards who have shown such courage and determination in the most challenging of personal circumstances.

I truly believe that Scouts is needed today more than it has ever been; our work to develop young people, connect communities and help young people to better understand and appreciate one another will doubtless help to make this world a better place. Whatever you do in Scouts, please accept my heartfelt thanks for your hard work that makes our Movement such an astonishing force for good.

Tim Kidd
UK Chief Commissioner

World Scouting

The Bronze Wolf is the only award presented by the World Scout Committee, and recognises outstanding service by an individual to the World Scout Movement.

The award was established by the International Committee in Stockholm in 1935. The first person to be awarded the Bronze Wolf was the Chief Scout of the World, Lord Baden-Powell.

In 2020, the following member from the United Kingdom received the award:

The Bronze Wolf

Dwayne Fields, Scout Ambassador

Meritorious Conduct Awards

In 1908, Baden-Powell introduced awards to recognise outstanding character, conduct, perseverance or initiative.

Other Awards

The Cornwell Scout Badge

Scout John 'Jack' Travers Cornwell joined the Royal Navy in 1915. Seriously injured during the Battle of Jutland in May 1916, he chose to stay at his post waiting for orders, until he was relieved at the end of battle. Upon reaching the port, he was transferred to a hospital in Grimsby where he died three days later.

For his bravery, he was posthumously awarded the Victoria Cross and the highest Gallantry award a Scout could earn, the Bronze Cross. The Cornwell Scout Badge was introduced in his memory. Today, it's presented to Scouts under the age of 25 who've shown immense courage in challenging circumstances.

In 2020, it was awarded to the following individuals:

British Scouting Overseas

Carl Gagnon (France & Iberia)

Scotland

Theo Harvey (North East - Scotland)

The Chief Scout's Personal Award

This award was introduced in 1982 by Chief Scout Major General Michael Walsh. Today, the Chief Scout and the National Awards Advisory Group work together to recognise those who've excelled in a unique way that's not covered by any other award criteria.

In 2020, it was awarded to the following individuals:

England

Aimee Harris (Derbyshire)
 Blake Williams (Cheshire)
 Caleb Johnson (Cheshire)
 Harvey Young (Hampshire)
 Hugo Anderson (Leicestershire)
 Jacob Frusher (Wiltshire)

 Jude Adams (Dorset)
 Oscar Walton (Cheshire)
 Sam Fox (Surrey)
 Sarah Anne Townsend (Oxfordshire)

Good Service Awards

(Awards issued between 1 January 2020 and 31 December 2020)

For many years, Scouts has recognised the quality of adult service. The first award of this kind – then known as the Gilt Medal of Merit – was made available by Baden-Powell in 1915. Today, Good Service Awards are presented each year to thank, acknowledge and celebrate outstanding members and associate members.

The Silver Wolf

This award is the unrestricted gift of the Chief Scout.

It's only awarded for service of a most exceptional nature.

It's not normally awarded until at least a Silver Acorn has been previously gained and a further prolonged period of exceptional service has been achieved. In practice, it's rarely awarded for less than 30 years' service although, because it is the Chief Scout's unrestricted gift, no length of service is prescribed.

The Bar to the Silver Acorn

Awarded after at least five years of similarly distinguished service after receiving the Silver Acorn.

The Silver Acorn

Awarded after at least 20 years' service, which should be specially distinguished and appreciably better than outstanding.

The Bar to the Award for Merit

Awarded after at least five years of further outstanding service after receiving the Award for Merit.

The Award for Merit

Awarded for outstanding service. It implies keen, conscientious, imaginative and dedicated service over a sustained period, of at least 12 years duration (exceptionally 10).

The Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service

Awarded in respect of not less than 5 years good service, which stands out. It should be regarded as the Chief Scout's recognition of the very real contribution made to the Scouts by the individual concerned.

In 2020, Good Service Awards have been awarded to the individuals listed on the following pages:

“I’ve got a really simple message for our Scout volunteers – and that’s thank you. It’s your generosity and positive example that makes everything work.”
Julia Bradbury, Scout Ambassador
