Saying thank you

Scouts is powered by your courage and kindness.

In this special coronation year, it's more important than ever that we say thank you for all you do. Your example of service is an inspiration to me and to our young people. Without you, we couldn't offer the opportunities for our Scouts to gain the skills they need to succeed, week in, week out. We couldn't help them try new things, forge new friendships and go to new places – like the 25th World Scout Jamboree in Korea where we're heading this summer. We couldn't help our young people shine and soar. You see the ones who make it all possible.

Whether you support Scouts quietly behind the scenes, deliver activities or help us get organised, it's your actions that make all the difference. That's why you so richly deserve the recognition in this 2023 Roll of Honour.

It's equally important we salute the astonishing bravery and resilience of our Gallantry and Meritorious Award Holders. All of you have done something extraordinary, and inspired us with your bravery and resilience. You stepped up when it counted.

Thank you for all you do. You're true inspirations to us all.

Bear Grylls OBE, Chief Scout

You, our volunteers, are remarkable.

It's your commitment that helps us reach so many young people in so many different communities, including our lower income neighbourhoods. It's thanks to your efforts that we're able to give young people the skills they need, and the future they deserve.

I'm so pleased every time I see a volunteer thanked and recognised because, as a volunteer myself, I know it means so much. A simple thank you can lift our spirits when we need it most. An award like those in this Roll of Honour, can really give us the boost we need to keep going.

If you're one of the names listed here, then please accept my huge congratulations. I know these are hard earned. Let's celebrate all you do, and never forget the contribution you make. You're doing something special and we never forget that.

My congratulations also go to our meritorious and gallantry award winners. Such courage as yours reminds of the extraordinary people who make up this great movement of ours.

Very well done to you all, and thank you.

Carl Hankinson, UK Chief Commissioner

Other Awards

The Cornwell Scout Badge

Scout John 'Jack' Travers Cornwell joined the Royal Navy in 1915. Seriously injured during the Battle of Jutland in May 1916, he chose to stay at his post waiting for orders, until he was relieved at the end of battle. Upon reaching the port, he was transferred to a hospital in Grimsby where he died three days later.

For his bravery, he was posthumously awarded the Victoria Cross and the highest Gallantry award a Scout could earn, the Bronze Cross. The Cornwell Scout Badge was introduced in his memory. Today, it's presented to Scouts under the age of 25 who've shown immense courage in challenging circumstances.

In 2022, it was awarded to the following individuals:

Good Service Awards

Awards issued between 1 January & 31 December 2022

For many years, Scouts has recognised the quality of adult service. The first award of this kind – then known as the Gilt Medal of Merit – was made available by Baden-Powell in 1915. Today, Good Service Awards are presented to thank, acknowledge and celebrate outstanding members and associate members.

The Silver Wolf

This award is the unrestricted gift of the Chief Scout. It's only awarded for service of a most exceptional nature.

The Bar to the Silver Acorn

Awarded after at least five years of similarly distinguished service after receiving the Silver Acorn.

The Silver Acorn

Awarded after at least 20 years' service, which should be specially distinguished and appreciably better than outstanding.

The Bar to the Award for Merit

Awarded after at least five years of further outstanding service after receiving the Award for Merit.

The Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service

Awarded in respect of not less than 5 years good service, which stands out. It should be regarded as the Chief Scout's recognition of the very real contribution made to the Scouts by the individual concerned.

“The great thing about volunteering is that you aren’t just helping others – all the evidence shows it’s great for you too. Volunteering is good for your physical and mental health, it’s a great way of making friends and strengthening communities and it’s fun. That’s certainly how I feel about my work as an ambassador with the Scouts, helping young people gain skills for life.”

Future recognition

Do you know an inspirational volunteer who goes above and beyond what is expected of them? If you'd like to nominate someone for a Good Service Award, here's what you need to do:

Step 1:

Determine if nominee meets the criteria for a Good Service award

Step 2:

Fill out a nomination form and forward it to the relevant individual for support/approval:

District Commissioners (and above) can approve the Award for Merit and the Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service.

County/Area/Region (Scotland) Commissioners (and above) can approve the Silver Acorn, Bar to the Award for Merit, Award for Merit and the Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service.

Only the National Awards Advisory Group can approve the Silver Wolf, and the Bar to the Silver Acorn (but only once support for the nomination has been provided locally).

Step 3:

Once approved and checked by UK Headquarters, awards are distributed to Counties (unless otherwise specified) on a quarterly basis.

Do you know a young person or volunteer whose show courage in adversity and quick thinking in the face of danger. If so, you might want to nominate them for a Meritorious Conduct or Gallantry Award, the Cornwell Scout Badge or the Chief Scout's Personal Award:

Step 1:

Determine if nominee meets the criteria for a Meritorious Conduct/Gallantry award, the Cornwell Scout Badge or if you think they should be nominated for the Chief Scout's Personal Award.

Step 2:

Fill out a nomination form and forward it to the relevant individual for support:

Only the National Awards Advisory Group can approve these awards (but only once support for the nomination has been provided locally).

Step 3:

Once approved and checked by UK Headquarters, awards are distributed to Counties (unless otherwise specified) on a bi-monthly basis.

Celebrating success

Don't forget that other resources are available to thank/celebrate volunteers via the Scouts website and Scouts Brand Centre.

Whether you're looking to say a simple 'thank you,' or just 'cheers for being there,' there's something for every occasion. From cards and social media posts, to stickers and certificates, you can celebrate your volunteers' achievements and make their day.

As well as our formal awards, these resources are great for celebrating the everyday achievements/time our amazing volunteers give us. Marking special moments, like a volunteer's first camp, or their first year volunteering, will show how much you appreciate what they do and encourage them to keep volunteering.
