

District Volunteering Development Team

Purpose

The District Volunteering Development Team makes sure all volunteers in their District have a positive and enjoyable volunteering experience. They make it easy for people to join and learn new skills.

Who's in the team

- Volunteering Development Team Leaders
- Volunteering Development Team Members

Other volunteers are automatically members of this team because of their roles in Scouts:

- Team Leaders of any District Volunteering Development Team sub-teams. For example, Awards and Recognition Team.

Tasks for the whole team

Make sure teams across the District: Support all District teams to be aware of, and reflect on, Our Volunteering Culture.

Allocated tasks

Attract and welcome new volunteers to District and Group teams:

- Use Scouts branded resources to attract new volunteers and show that Scouts is inclusive and open to all.
- Reply quickly and positively to possible new volunteers.
- Make sure volunteers are welcomed easily and smoothly, including supporting volunteers to share any reasonable adjustments they may need.
- Hold inductions with Group Lead Volunteers and other Group and District Leadership Team Members.

Make sure volunteers are well supported:

- Support all District teams (including Group Lead Volunteers) to follow our approach to equity, diversity and inclusion, safer volunteer recruitment, joining, reviews, and processes for leaving Scouts.
- Help and encourage Team Leaders (including Group Lead Volunteers) to have regular reviews with volunteers in their teams.

Help volunteers with learning:

- Help volunteers and Young Leaders find and engage in opportunities for learning and development.
- Coordinate Scouts learning that needs to be delivered by an accredited Trainer - including organising and supporting the Trainers.
- Use learning delivery materials developed by Scouts (such as training sessions, workshops, activities and so on), and make changes (when necessary) so the environment and activities are accessible for everyone.
- Help volunteers connect across the District and beyond to learn, share best practices and overcome shared challenges.
- Set up learning opportunities with external organisations (if relevant and helpful).
- Support and recognise volunteers for their prior learning and experiences, and credit this in their records.
- Learn from people in other Volunteering Development Teams.

Recognise volunteers:

- Recognise and appreciate volunteers for their brilliant work, formally and informally.

Other responsibilities

There are a number of accreditations which can be given to share specific responsibilities.

We expect that members of this team will take part in regulated activity.
